

1. Complete, giving all details, of the calculations done in class of the one loop divergent diagrams in QED. The three diagrams were, the electron self energy, the photon self energy and the vertex correction. You need to only consider the divergent contributions for this homework, i.e., reproduce all the Z factors. The calculation of the finite parts will be discussed later.