

1. Infrared problem in scalar electrodynamics: Consider the scattering of a scalar particle from an external electromagnetic potential. Show by explicitly calculations the cancellations of the infrared divergences in the appropriate crosssections involving virtual diagrams and Brehm-straahlung. Are there any differences with the case of spinor electrodynamics? Explain the physics behind your answer.